Chosen by law firms around the world

"Working with Legalsense, we concluded that their support department is very responsive, they quickly come back with answers if we face any issues, and they stay on top of things."

Jonas Axelson, CEO RosholmDell

"We are also very satisfied with the support, especially the short lines of communication and personal attention. We look back on a pleasant start in which we received a beautiful package almost without any problems."

Erwin van Nijnatten, Partner Fender Lawfirm

"Since we are using Legalsense, both the company and our firm grew significantly in headcount. Customer service at Legalsense is not limited to operational issues or questions. The development team at Legalsense is always ready to discuss possible new features and is flexible in adding them to the product roadmap."

Michelle Öberg Johnson, Office manager Wigge & Partners

"Because Legalsense facilitates us in easily registering the activities, less time is lost. It is practical software that makes our lives a lot easier."

Paul Bavelaar, Partner Bavelaar Lawyers

"Legalsense exceeded our expectations. At the start of the project, we didn't expect the project to go so smoothly, and the software would be so easy to work with."

Patrik Giléus, CFO Svalner Tax & Transaction

Timekeeping

Uncomplicated and personal

Clarity and simplicity are crucial for getting the most out of a timekeeping system. Do you want to search for previously recorded timelines quickly? Enter the time spent – anytime and anywhere. With the Legalsense app, this becomes child's play. Whether you are on your sofa at home, in court, or on vacation: no phone call or email will be forgotten.

Billing

The power of simplicity

A digital billing process set up in exactly the right way to run your billing process much smoother. Of course, it's also neatly branded with your firm's corporate identity. Manual billing cycles are now a thing of the past; swift and efficient billing is the way forward. This will improve your cash flow.

Client and matter management

Everything at your fingertips

Client data, bills, recorded time, work in progress, budget status, and reports are all your matter's essential components, available at the click of a mouse—no matter where you are.

Reporting

Looking back and looking forward

You get the data you need with just the touch of a button. Clear reports and dashboards keep you in control of your practice and keep your team focused. Our reports are easy to create and interpret, even without Excel skills.

Integrations

A perfect working environment through the power of collaboration

Integrated overall solution in collaboration with other online specialist software, such as Twinfield, Exact Online, NetDocuments, Epona DMSforLegal, Epona ContactManager, iManage Work(site), Custodian for Legal (Transform Data) and Contentworker by Formpipe. In doing so, Legalsense ensures the seamless exchange of data.
